

Mrs Peppin has been busy upholstering chairs but unfortunately one of them has gone wild overnight.

- ❖ Where would you find this chair?
- ❖ Who would own a chair like this?
- ❖ Where would it be kept?

Your challenge is to write a short story or descriptive piece which features this piece of furniture.

- What similes/metaphors can you use?
- How can you include your senses in your writing?

Submit your entries to your English teacher and the best ones will receive a prize.
